

We Told Them So.—Two years ago, after the Lecompton Swindle was annulled by the people of Kansas, the Democrats of this County called upon every body opposed to Abolitionism, to unite with them. Their argument was, that the slavery question was settled, and that the people should act in harmony. A great many Free State men took the bait, and united with their late persecutors. They were liberal in giving nominations to Free State men—insisted upon their taking most of the offices; and boasted of this, as an evidence that the Democracy was united. We warned them, at that time, that the Pro-Slavery men found they could not get along without the aid of Free State Democrats, and as soon as the latter helped them to push the Pro-Slavery men would push them aside. Has it not been fulfilled?

Last Fall, the Democrats elected a portion of their ticket. In the Spring, Commissioners were to be elected; the Republicans were tired of elections, and let the matter go almost by default. The result was, the Democracy succeeded by a very large majority. This gave them an idea that the County was theirs in any contingency. No sooner did they obtain this notion, than they began to declare Free State Democrats unseemly; and have now nominated a ticket composed almost entirely of the very Pro-Slavery Buffoons who rendered themselves most obnoxious during the troubles. They think to retain the Free State Democratic vote, by jelping John Brown and negro equality, and buying men with whiskey.

This shows, firstly, what the Pro-Slavery men will do, when they think they have the power; and secondly, the estimate they place upon the votes of free white men.

The Leavenworth Times has an Indiana correspondent, signing himself Kansas, who reports the progress of Col. Delahay, H. P. Johnson, and Jim Lane, now engaged in stamping that State. The letters generally contain the most fulsome laudations of Delahay & Co., and the wonders they are performing. They are said to be written by Delahay himself, of which we have no doubt, as in a recent one, the writer commences telling the wonderful performance of the trio, and inadvertently slides from them to me! Molested man, is Delahay!

Democrats, as well doctors, differ. The Dayton (O.) Empire has been boasting of a tremendous torch-light procession in Miamiburg, upon which occasion there were over 1100 torches in procession, and several thousand persons present. A correspondent of the Cleveland Plaindealer, which paper always exaggerates matters of that kind as greatly as a Democratic conscience will admit of, says he counted 140 torches in the same procession, and that fully 300 persons assembled to hear the speaking!—Quite a difference.

Another Lincoln gun has spoken. Last week an election came off in New Haven, Connecticut, which the Republicans carried by over 100 majority. New Haven has for some years been strongly Democratic, in consequence of the Irish influence. In this election, the Douglas and Breckinridge men were united. Last Spring the Democratic majority was 200. This makes a Republican gain of 300, in less than six months. The gain is easily accounted for—Douglas made a speech at New Haven, while in search of his mother!

QUEST.—Wonder if Blakely contemplates running for Sheriff, "with variations," as he did over in Helt, the time he was seen dusting it out of the hazel brush, in the vicinity of Foster's Mill?

By the way, speaking of that race for Sheriff, he found himself to be so very unpopular, that he withdrew from the race in despair, before the election. From present prospects, we shouldn't wonder if he would be compelled to do the same thing over here.

A tremendous Republican rally was held in New York City, last week, at which, one of the principal speakers was Wm. E. Dodge, a prominent and influential merchant of that city, and late President of the Bell and Everett Club. The Bell and Douglas bargain and sale drove him to Lincoln. That's the way they are doing all over the country.

Douglas, in his speech after finding his mother, remarked that he regretted Lincoln did not dare to visit the graves of his parents, for fear of personal violence. It is rather a pity; but Old Abe will split the difference, and occasionally take a look at Douglas' grave!

We were misinformed in that matter of W. D. Wood wire-working to defeat Dr. Crane for the Council. It was another person from the Dr.'s town who did it, and the office for which Crane was an aspirant was Representative.

Dr. Eddy, a distinguished Methodist divine of Chicago, has written a letter to President Buchanan, against Slavery. The Dr. might just as well talk metaphysics to a starving Cannibal, for all the good it will do.

Fillbuster Walker, and his assistant Riller, have been shot. So late advice from Central America report. Good!

STRAW.—John Morrissey, the pugilist, has bet $2,000 that Lincoln will be the next President. He is an ardent Douglas man, and will vote accordingly; but he says that when he bets, he goes in to win, regardless of politics.

A gentleman in Southern Illinois, offers a valuable mill and other property for sale, payable upon condition that Lincoln carries Illinois and New York. He is also a Douglas man, but says he feels confident of getting his pay.

When Douglas men get to betting on Lincoln, the motherless Dwarf's prospects must be billions indeed.

D. W. Wilder, Esq., late of the Elwood Free Press, has taken charge of the editorial columns of the St. Joseph Free Democrat. He will add greatly to the influence and efficiency of that staunch Republican organ of North-Western Missouri.

Edward Everett has a paper in the last New York Ledger, headed "Leisure Hours." After the election, he will be permitted to enjoy many such hours.

Some of the papers call Douglas an "artful dodger." We think he is more frequently a corned-dodger.

Quite a frost visited this region, on Thursday morning of last week.

The Last Man.—The borough of Knoxville, Tiana County, Pa., has sixty-five voters, sixty-four of whom are for Lincoln, and the odd one for Breckinridge. Probably the "odd one" is Postmaster.

In the address recently issued by the Breckinridge National Executive Committee, occurs the following passage:

"To condole Republican votes, he has indulged in vulgar flings at the South. 'I HAVE MORE POWER FOR YOUR CLANS THAN I HAVE FOR YOUR HONORS!' These things have sunk deep into the hearts of the American Democracy," etc.

What things? Not the claims, certainly, for they sink deep into the stomachs of the American Democracy.—Buffalo Commercial.

During the critical period antecedent to the Charleston Convention, Mr. Douglas was greatly afflicted. The telegraph was daily telling us of the illness of the Judge. Now, however, his health is remarkable. We don't hear a word about sore throat, gout in the stomach, pleurisy, dysentery, beriberi, or anything of the kind.—Cia. Commercial.

HARD ON J. B.—It is the custom of the Long Island Republicans to open their meetings with prayer. A venerable clergyman, called upon to perform this service at the dedication of the Wiganam at a few evenings since, commenced in his fervent petition the following by no means complimentary allusion to the present Administration: "O Lord, thou knowest that sometimes the vilest of the vile attain the high places of power, and that we, as a people, are undergoing a bitter experience in this respect!"

John Bell says that "humanity to the slave is less than justice to the master, demands that slavery should be extended."

Or of South Carolina; Wise of Virginia, and Dickinson and the Herald of New York, all predict the election of Lincoln.

The San Francisco Times predicts that Douglas will not get as many votes in California as Breckinridge by five thousand, and will be behind both him and Lincoln; the latter of whom will carry the State, unless all signs fail.

Within a month, orders have been received through the Young Men's Republican Union of New York for more than 6,000 uniforms for the Wide-Awakes, whose numbers throughout the country are now increasing at the rate of 2,000 daily.

An "influential gentleman," from Texas, informs the St. Louis Bulletin that there will be no Douglas electoral ticket in that State, and that it is more than probable that Sam Houston will withdraw from the canvass previous to the Presidential election.

The yellow Democracy in New Jersey is composed of Douglasites, Breckinridge men, Americans and Know Nothings—the broken down, rag ends of all the ills extent.

The two wings of the Democratic party in Wisconsin, are having as dispute as to which Judge Cade, of that State, belonged. He was very sensibly settled the vexed question by pronouncing for Lincoln.

The Burlington (Vt.) Free Press publishes the following extrait d'opinion of the Douglas candidate for Governor of that State:

Gov. Fletcher, Hall and Fairbanks happened to meet the other day, and were joined by Mr. Saxe. "Well," said some one, "this seems to be a kind of gubernatorial convention; here is ex-Gov. Fletcher, acting Gov. Hall, future Gov. Fairbanks, and —" hesitating and looking at Mr. Saxe, who finished the sentence with "a post post future Gov. Saxe." After which the laugh came in.

Of all the cool things in the present campaign, nothing is cooler than a letter from John A. Dix, who ran as the Free-soil candidate for Governor of New York, and who supported Van Buren in 1848, but who now regards Lincoln as "sectional" and supports Breckinridge. The New York Postoffice is "national," and Dix is in it.

The Washington Constitution has taken the alarm at the late speeches of Mr. Douglas. It believes him to be endeavoring to secure the election of Lincoln to the Presidency, and charges that he has made avowals which, if carried out in good faith, would make him a supporter of Lincoln's Administration.

The New York Times remarks of the Bell-Douglas intrigue:

The Republicans of this State have no apprehension from the coalition that has been formed against them. They believe that it will forfeit the support of thousands of voters, who, under other circumstances, would not vote the Republican ticket.

Another Douglas Elector Declined.—We conversed with a gentleman from Hickman County yesterday, who informed us that O. A. Nixon, Esq., the Douglas Elector for the Seventh Congressional District, declined that position.—Nashville American.

Prof. E. D. Sanborn, formerly of Dartmouth College, and now of the Washington University at St. Louis, has declared his preference for Lincoln in the present contest. Mr. Sanborn is an old Webster Whig, and is a man whose opinions have always had great weight among conservative people.

NEW YORK is one of the States claimed by one of the more important Douglasians. A like claim was set up in 1856, and with equal justice. New York is now for Lincoln by a majority of from 50,000 to 100,000. Of that we have not the slightest doubt.

John Van Buren says that Cagney & Co. committed "the blunder of the age" when they fused with the Know Nothings—the most violent enemies the Democratic party ever had. He also says "it will be much surprised if Douglas carries more than a single State." What State that will be, John does not mention.

Here in the Northwest the Douglas organs endeavor to create the belief that their party is favorable to the Homestead policy; but down in Alabama and Georgia, where there are no votes to be made by this pretense, they denounce the Homestead Bill in any form, and call even the bill passed last Spring "the most atrocious act that ever was passed." Douglas himself deliberately dodged the question.

Gov. Gist of South Carolina wants to go to the National Horse Show, to be held at Springfield, Mass., but he can't. The Constitution of the State declares the Governorial chair vacant if the occupant leaves the limits of the State during his term of office.

The Louisville Courier, after branding Douglas as a vile and wretched political miscreant, sets up the claim that he is indebted to the Democratic party for everything he is. His obligations must certainly be tremendous.—Low Jour.

A Douglas meeting held at Lawrenceville, Ga., recently, was attended by four men—one was Chairman, another was Secretary, and the other two were the enthusiastic audience.

WHY WILL PEOPLE suffer on and on, groan with the back-ache, grunt with the rheumatism, grumble and scold with pains here and pains there, when a few applications of J. L. Curtis' Mammale Liment would entirely relieve them? We wonder at it; as we do also that those who are suffering with colds and coughs do not at once cure themselves by using his Compound Syrup of Sassafras. Hundreds have done so, and other hundreds should profit by their example. See advertisement.
